Arrests

Aggravated Malicious Wounding | Strangulation | Domestic Related – On July 27 at 6:49AM, officers responded to a residence located in the 7500 block of Thurston Ln in Manassas (20111) to investigate a domestic dispute. The investigation revealed the victim, a 37-year-old woman, and a family member, identified as the accused, were involved in a verbal altercation inside the home that escalated. During the encounter, the accused stabbed the victim multiple times and, at one point, choked her. When another occupant of the home, a 14-year-old female juvenile, attempted to intervene, the accused pushed her away. The parties were eventually able to be separated, and the victim was able to leave the home to a neighbor's residence where police encountered her. Officers provided first aid until fire and rescue personnel arrived on scene. The victim was transported to an area hospital where the injuries were determined to be non-life threatening. The accused fled the home before police arrived and was not immediately located. No other injuries were reported. Following the investigation, officers obtained multiple arrest warrants for the accused, identified as Miguel Angel RODRIGUEZ-TORRES. The accused was arrested later that evening without incident.
